A memorable event deserves a remarkable setting, and the old San Mateo County Courthouse offers just that. In fact, it’s listed in the National Register of Historic Places.
San Mateo County
HISTORY MUSEUM

will add an aura of historical presence to your wedding day. Enjoy dining in the classic elegance of Courtroom A. This magnificently restored courtroom with its stained glass ceiling provides a one of a kind dining experience.
Classic, old-world charm envelops you and your guests. Light streams through the magnificent stained glass, domed ceiling of the rotunda, landing on handsome mosaic floors.

The grand staircase, with finely drafted iron balustrades, leads to the balcony-like second floor.

Dancing in the Grand Rotunda under the stained-glass lighted dome.
Stately, marble columns, topped by elaborately carved capitals, line the walls of the Grand Rotunda. While above them, building up to the splendor of the dome, are sixteen arched stained-glass windows.
San Mateo County
HISTORY MUSEUM

- Courthouse A accommodates up to 170 seated guests
- Museum and Courthouse A are able to accommodate up to 400 guests for a cocktail party
- The restored Courthouse A also features a beautiful stained glass ceiling
- Celebrate a wedding, reception, retirement or holiday party
- A fully-equipped catering kitchen for approved caterers

The adjoining Atkinson Meeting Room can hold up to 50 additional seated guests.